Subject: Trailer Fire Results in One Fatality

Contact: Francisco Leon, Public Information Officer

Release: For Immediate Release

On Sunday, November 1, 2026, at approximately 6:17 a.m., Yuma Fire Department personnel responded to a reported residential fire in the area of East 38th Place and South Mesa Avenue.

Upon arrival, firefighters found a travel trailer in the backyard of a residence fully engulfed in flames. Crews quickly began extinguishing the fire and were able to contain it to the trailer, preventing it from spreading to nearby structures.

During the incident, firefighters located one individual deceased inside the trailer.

Following an investigation, the Yuma Police Department determined the death was accidental and no criminal activity was involved. The fire remains under investigation by the Yuma Fire Department.

No additional information is available at this time.
